

Maintenance Technician

Position Summary:

Responsible for independently performing preventative maintenance in a timely fashion, troubleshooting and repair on a variety of equipment within the facility and maintaining the physical buildings preferably with CNC lathes and/or injection molding machines.

Duties and Requirements: (including but not limited to)

- Inspects all equipment on a daily basis and performs any necessary preventative or required maintenance
- Develops and maintains preventive maintenance logs
- Participates as a member of the safety committee
- Inspects building as part of a preventative maintenance program and to mitigate costly repairs
- Analyzes equipment and systems, develops corrective actions and carries out same
- Sources and orders necessary parts/components to maintain an adequate inventory to perform repairs of critical equipment
- Provides Plant Manager with regular updates on maintenance issues and the seriousness of such issues or problems
- Participates in projects related to the acquisition of new equipment, or equipment modification
- Designs and engineers new projects as required

Requirements:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Five to Seven years of hands on experience performing maintenance and repair on CNC lathes and/or injection molding machines within a manufacturing environment
- Must be able to analyze problems and advise on a proper and cost-effective course of action
- Knowledge of electrical control and design necessary as well as tool making
- Must be able to manage multiple priorities and projects under time sensitive deadlines
- Strong Work Ethic
- Ability to Lift Heavy Objects – up to 50 lbs
- Great attitude, willing to learn, be an integral part of a team.

Pay:

- Dependent on Experience